

A. Maestranzi and Sons

Knife Sharpening Services You Can't Beat

The Maestranzi family has been providing knife-sharpening services for four generations, dating back over a hundred years ago in Trentino, Italy. That "Old World Craftsmanship" is still practiced today as the company continues to lead the industry with superior sharpening methods.

A. Maestranzi and Sons edge every blade by hand which results in a sharper and more durable knife. Every customer will receive a personal consultation to discover all the programs A. Maestranzi and Sons has to offer.

The company's central product is the knife sharpening/rental program, where they customize a knife inventory and frequency to match your culinary needs.

In various regions, A. Maestranzi and Sons are able to repair slicers, stick blenders, and other various small food equipment. With their expertise and dedication, the company can guarantee the best quality products and services.

A. Maestranzi and Sons will help you cut through your biggest challenges.
