

Industry Leading Blast Chillers for Optimal Temperature Control

Foodbuy is pleased to announce a new program with Irinox in the category of commercial blast chillers.

Founded in 1989

in Treviso, Italy and known all over the world as the leading manufacturer of blast chillers and shock freezers.

Irinox is a pioneer in developing the concepts of blast chilling and high-quality food preservation in the catering, confectionery, ice cream, bread-making and food industries.

Through investing in the continuous research and improvement of its technology year after year, Irinox has become the ideal partner of most food professionals and companies around the world. Irinox offers Members a leading edge line of industrial blast chillers and shock freezers created using revolutionary concepts that have set market benchmarks. With more than 40,000 installations and equipment in 80 countries, Irinox is a key partner in this category.

First Steps

To request a new account under the CSM program, please send an email with your company name, location address and telephone number to membersupport@csmcostsolutions.com.