

Employment Solutions

First Advantage is the world's most trusted background check provider. With easy-to-understand background check results, you will feel more confident about prospective employee, vendor and contractor decisions. Offering an advanced global technology platform, superior customer service and compliance expertise delivered by local staff who understand local markets, First Advantage helps customers around the world build fully scalable, configurable screening programs that meet their unique needs.

Access criminal record searches; education, employment, and professional license verifications; global sanction searches; credit checks; fingerprint screening; drug testing and more.

First Advantage supports over 35,000 clients worldwide with 26 offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia conducting over 55 million international background screens annually on 17.2 million applicants.

To request a new account under the CSM-First Advantage program, please send an email with your business name, location address and phone number to membersupport@csmcostsolutions.com.